LATINO COMMUNITY SUPPORTS BILLY BRISCOE

Leaders Endorse Harris County Treasurer Candidate and Host Fundraiser

(HOUSTON) Billy Briscoe, candidate for Harris County Treasurer, has received the endorsement of notable Latino elected officials and community leaders including Houston City Council Member James Rodriguez, the Honorable Ana Hernandez, the Honorable Armando Walle, Frumencio Reyes and Steven Flores, President of the Latino Labor Leadership Council. Briscoe, a Houston businessman, attorney and noted community leader has been actively campaigning since December 2009.

“Billy is committed to public service and to serving the constituents of Harris County. His background in business and on policy matters is the right combination for Harris County Treasurer. I am proud to support his candidacy,” said Houston City Council Member James Rodriguez.

“I am proud to be supporting Billy Briscoe in this election and look forward to working hard in making sure that he gets elected. His experience and background is exactly what’s needed in the Treasurer’s office. Billy has my support and the full support of the Latino Labor Leadership Council behind him,” said Steven Flores, President of the Latino Labor Leadership Council.

“I am honored to have the support of these proven leaders in the Latino community. I believe my qualifications, commitment to public service and business experiences will allow me to implement the changes needed in the Treasurer’s office and to serve the constituent of Harris County well,” Briscoe said.

On Thursday of this week, this group along with the Honorable Carol Alvarado and local young professionals Jerry Acosta, Jose Medrano, Jose Soto, and Stace Medellin are hosting a fundraiser for Briscoe.

The fundraising reception for the Billy Briscoe for Harris County Treasurer Campaign is Thursday, September 9th from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at Haven (2502 Algerian Way).

The office of County Treasurer has the duties of depositing county funds and executing expenditures authorized by Commissioners Court. The position is currently held by Orlando Sanchez, who has previously run twice unsuccessfully for Mayor of Houston. Briscoe's campaign treasurer is Ada Edwards, former Houston City Council Member.
